

The way we want to be June 2012

Our teachers expect us to:

- be kind, considerate, helpful and friendly to everyone
- say hello politely to visitors
- walk, not run, in corridors and let the grown-ups pass by
- do our best in everything we do, including our homework
- obey the rules for whatever we're doing or wearing or playing
- own up when we do something bad or make a mistake
- use words to build others up and show we love them and God

We are not allowed to:

- miss any classes or sports without permission
- ignore or disobey our parents, teachers or the stewards
- mess up or break things in class or on the playground
- borrow or use or take things that don't belong to us without asking
- tell lies or cheat or let people think things that aren't true
- play rough games that hurt others on purpose
- go into "out of bounds" areas unless we're with a teacher
- keep a cellphone with us during the school day
- tease or bully anyone, by hurting them (hitting, pinching, pulling hair or kicking) or calling them an unkind name, or making fun of them
- bring ugly, evil or violent toys or books to school
- bring cigarettes, alcohol, drugs, rude pictures or weapons to school
